The following is my unfinished attempt to record some of the family history. Please forgive my errors, and tell me of any names dates Etc that I have forgotten, and correct any mistakes you see.

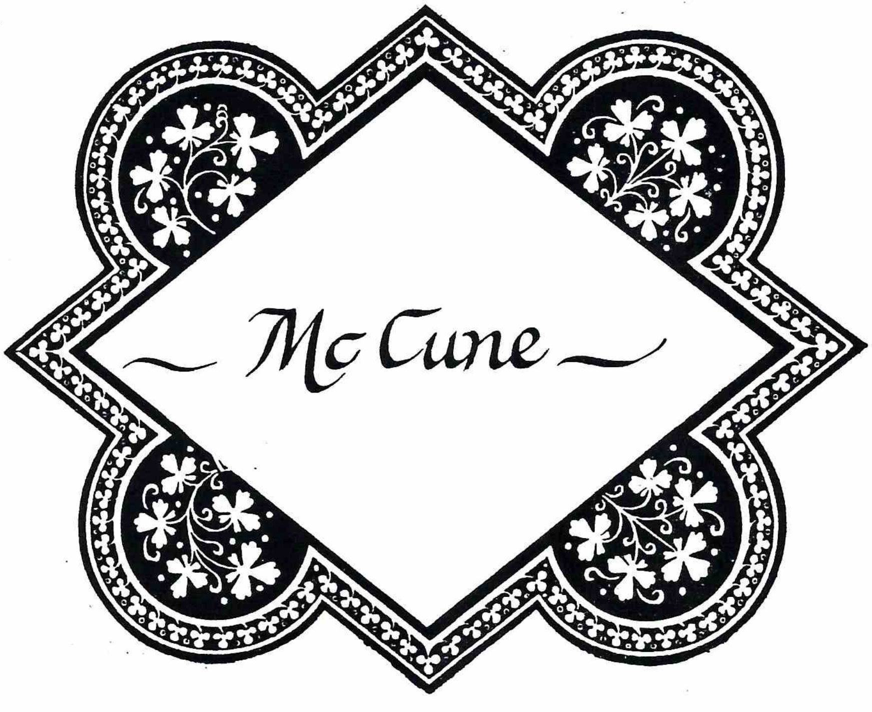
If you have any stories, weither about the older generations or your own children or grandchildren, I would be quite happy to include them. Also If you have any pictures that will photocopy, I would also love to include them.

You can mail anything to RR3 Nashville IL, 62263
618-336-5234.

As I make corrections/additions I would be quite happy to hand out new copies, and will probably have more to hand out next year as I am doing some more research at the librarys and courhouses when I can find the time.

I hope you enjoy reading this as mu ch as I have enjoyed doing it.

Your Relative Lora Earlene McCune



Stories About McCune Family

Pat Corn had a bunch of straw that he needed to pitch. Some boys came by and he cried and told them that his wife was under the straw. They all pitched straw until Pat told them that it was enough straw, that it was all a trick to get them to pitch the hay.

Pat Corn stayed all night with Ivan. Ivan borrowed his pipe and pitched it in the stove. He bought Pat a new one and told him he thought he looked better with the new one.

Ivan Corn told the men who were putting in electric lines (jokeingly) that they couldn't cut down his trees to put the power line in or he'd go get his shot gun. They went around the trees!

A mad dog (A puppy that they had) was under a shed. Earl McCune was bit by the dog. Elza McCune tried to catch it so he could whip it for biting Earl and it also bit him. Isabel (Bell) McCune (their mom) took the boys to Hoylton Ill. to the Madstone and they never got rabies. Pieces of the stone (A porous stone, honeycone shaped - sort of like a lava rock) were placed on the bites and it drew the green stuff out of their arms.

Bill McCune cried every night til his mom (Bell) stuck him in a rain barrel.

Edna held her breath when she got mad. Ellic (Her Uncle, Bell's brother) took Edna's hat off and Bell stuck her in the rain barrel.

Bell McCune thought if you got your clothes on wrong side out you had to wear them like that all day. Bell wouldn't do anything on Fri 13th. She also wouldn't let anyone bring an ax or hoe inside or someone would die. She also believed that if anyone swept after dark that the horses or mules would die. If a dog howled someone had died.

Bell McCune believed that a black cat brought bad luck because her and Elza were going to Rice in a buggy and a black CAT went across and the horse ran away. Bell fell out and got hurt. She was knocked out and was carried home on bed springs. Mildred (her daughter) was gone on the 4th of July and came home and thought she had died. There after Bell never crossed the path of a black cat.

John Corn said if he had a mean wife he'd kill her. Pat said and they'll hang you for it. Pat said "You mean they'll hang me for killing my own wife"!?

Earl McCune and Bill went hunting. Bill found a bee tree and put the honey in Earl's new lumber jacket. Earl fussed so on the way home that Bill threw the jacket down and stomped on it.

Bill McCune had a car that was a Star brand. The car would go a little ways and stop. Then it would go again and stop. Ira (Pud) Davis (Annie Wright's brother) told Bill "Twinkle, Twinkle little star..." and Bill got so mad he knocked out the headlights.

Elza McCune bought a new buggy. Florence Krupp was staying at her Grandmother's house. Elza said that he needed to grease his new buggy. Florence wanted to help her Uncle Elza so she greased it for him...the seat and all... with axel grease! She said that Uncle Elza would have killed her if Grandma hadn't stopped him.

Aunt Edna and Uncle Clarence Chapman moved to a house off of the south side of Rice road across from the Ed Hunter home. (The Ed Hunter home is used to store hay and is about to fall in. Lawrence Bathon lives in the house that Edna and Clarence lived in.) Some people had moved out of the house because they believed it was haunted, and everyone had told Edna that it was haunted. Edna's dad (Robert McCune) told Edna that if she heard any strange noises to investigate it or she would never know what caused it. And that there are no haunts. Clarence went to Hunter's store in Rice every night (except sunday when it was closed.) This night he went to the store and Edna heard a thumping noise below the east window. She just knew it was a ghost, but went to investigate it anyway. It was an old dog thumping his tail against the wall.

Clarence Chapman always brought his dog (Tobe) a candy bar from Hunter's store. Ethel, Ruth and Doris McCune went to visit Edna. When Clarence came home he fed his dog the candy bar. Ruth said "Huh, some dogs get treated better than kids!"

Earl McCune was a partner in Tree-O lumber company with Howard and Paul Kelly. Howard cut off 2 fingers and part of a thumb while sawing lumber. Howard stood around calmly talking while everyone else was all upset. Finally he said that he guessed he'd better get to the hospital. Earl, who was leaning against his own truck at the time, said "I'd sure take you if I could just find my truck!"

Earl McCune was planting or plowing and Ethel was disking in their bottom. Ethel was driving the tractor that they had borrowed from Bill McCune. There had been an electric fence their and Ethel ran over the old wire and got off the tractor to move it so it wouldn't catch in the disk. Then she got back on and went a little further and started to get off to move the wire further out of the way. The tractor went into gear and threw her off. The disk ran up on her arm and she raised it with her other arm and got out of the way. The disk made 3 marks on her arm and crinkled up the long sleve white shirt that she was wearing. That was the last time she helped farm!

I had hand fed a baby runt pig. It was a red Duroc pig just like all the others my Daddy (Earl) had raised. Dady sold the rest of his pigs and Petunia (My pet) got up in the truck with the rest of the pigs. I cried and Daddy told them that they had to get the pig out. They said they would if he could show them which one she was. Mom hollered "Petunia" and Petunia aqueeled and tried to come to Mom and the men were able to get her out of the truck. When moving to northern Ill. we left Petunia with my Uncle Jack Bird. A year or more later when back home for a visit, I went with Uncle Jack to feed the pigs. We drove into the pen in a pickup truck and loaded the feeder from the truck. Uncle Jack had warned me not to get down because Petunia had a bunch of babies and was very big and was very protective of the babies and was mean. Of course (being a McCune!) I paid no attention to that and jumped out of the truck the minute their back was turned. I holleder "Tunie" (Short for Petunia) and she let out a squeal and ran to me. Uncle Jack said he saw my life flash before his eyes and was frozen to the spot wondering how he would tell my Daddy that he let a pig kill me! Petunia remembered me and was just happy to see me and let me pet and hug her. When Uncle Jack got down to get me though, she wouldn't let him near.

At one time I had over 11 kittens. Uncle Bill didn't care for cats too much (he loved dogs though) but he once told me that if a person came back as an animal after you died, that he'd like to come back as one of my cats because they were so well treated!

Daddy always stopped the tractor at the end of the lane and I rode to the house with him on the tractor. One day I was busy playing and Daddy came on to the house without me. I cried so that he went back out and went to the end of the lane and back with me on the tractor. Because I was his only child and he didn't have any sons, when he got a new blue Dodge logging truck from Bockhors Motors in Steelville Ill he had "Lora" painted on the front of the truck. The other farmers had their sons names on their trucks. He took quite a bit of ribbing from everyone about that.

Ernie McCune had just had Shirley and was in the hospital having a tumor removed. Annie McCune Hutchings took the kids and was watching them while Ernie was in the hospital. She took them on a picnic and made Devils food cake and deviled eggs. Ruth said "Huh, if you're so religious how come everything is deviled!"

Florence Krupp lived in Peoris Ill. and Mom, Dad and I were visiting. Florence had made a cake that just looked like the one on a cover of a magazine. She went to get it and hit her elbow on the door. The cake went flying and hit the wall right by Daddy. Daddy wanted to laugh but he thought Florence was going to cry. Then Florence laughed and went to get the picture to show him what it had looked like. Every time Daddy saw Florence he'd ask her if she'd thrown any cakes lately!

Alene was on the way to school and thought she saw a bear. She dropped her dinner bucket and ran home but her mom wasn't there and she had to run back to Grandma's where she finally found her mom. Her Dad (Bill) told her that she might have saw a bear butt but not a bear! Alene didn't go to school the rest of that year because she was afraid that she'd see the bear again.

When Roosevelt got re-elected Lorene Mantel told the kids when they got to school to say "Horray for Roosevelt!". Alene who was around 8 or 9, told Doris and Ruth not to say "Horray for Roosevelt" because they were Republicans. When they got to school they were the only kids in the whole class that didn't say "Horray for Roosevelt" because they were republicans, which they didn't know what meant but they sure weren't going to holler it!

Grandma Bell would fill your plate up and tell you if you didn't eat it starvation might be staring you right in the face!

Stories about McCune Family

Uncle Elza McCune worked tending bar for a short time, and of course Aunt Edna was very upset about it. Her and Aunt Mildred were talking about it and Aunt Mildred said, Well at least he's out of the weather!

Henry McKinstry's sister Rose had always dreamed that there was money hid behi the old chimney flu or in the bricks, so when they tore the house down they searched but found no money.

Stories

One of the Corr's (Either Pat or Ivan) had a cedar fence row that he wanted cleaned out. He told some boys that he'd pay them a 1.00 a lb for the cedar ashes. The boys cleaned it out and burnt the wood, and had no ashes because cedar wood doesn't make ashes!

When Doris McCune was little, once Grandma McCune and Uncle Earl went to town, and before they left Grandma Bell had baked a choclate cake. Phyllis McCune (Uncle Elza'a Dau.) was staying with them and Doris, Ruth, Alene and Phyllis went in and dug into the cake with their fingers and ate it. Doris said she felt so guilty, but Grandma never said anything and she didn't tell anyone that they'd done that till years later.

When Annie McCune Hutchings was making bread , this was her job and she didn't want any one else in there while she was making the bread. Once when she was making bread, while she was doing something else her grandson Ed O'Neil who was about 2½, crawled up on a chair and poked his green army men down in the dough and they disappeared in the dough. When Annie came back and Started kneeding the bread the green army men started popping up and they scared Annie. She said "Lands sacks she thought it was like in moses day, with green frogs in her dough!"

Annie Nehring had a Santa Claus suit from the Kellerman school and loaned it to Daddy (Earl). Mom was at Ernie and Bill McCune's already and Daddy knocked on the door and came in to give out the presents. Shirley said it wasn really Santa Claus cause he knocked on the door!

Mary then married James McCowen (McCowen was later changed to McCune in the family bible by Robert McCune). James in 1850 census was 52. James was also from Ireland, but I don't know what part of Ireland or when he came here. James took a load of hoop-poles (Hoop-poles are small poles that went around barrels to hold them together.) somewhere, and the team of oxen wanted water and ran off into the creek. James hurt his leg in the accident and died from the injury. He is buried at either Little Prarie or Burnt Prairie cemetary.

After James McCowen died, James Conn (Who had been married 2 previous times and was a widower) took bacon, bread and other food to Mary, and just brought her home one day because it would be easier to take care of her at his place, so they got married. Although James and Mary Conn never had any children together, his + hers were more than enough. James had the following children from his previous wives:

My Way

Dear Dad, I didn't say goodbye, But I know you understand why,
We hunted we trapped and we cut wood too,
We walked and we talked and we laughed some too.
Now I've gone ahead to make a place, It will be a place of Grace.
We will hunt and trap and cut wood too.
We will walk and talk and laugh some too.
Dear Dad I was ailing but I could not say
I know you understand because it was my way.

Of the Limerick Verdons, William was mayor of the city in 1553; and John Verdon, in 1579, was sovereign of Kilmallock, and in 1585 represented that town in parliament. Several of the Verdons of Kilmallock were transplanted to Connacht in 1653.

de Bearnaḃál—XI—de Bernevale, Barnewall, Barnavill, Barnwell; i.e., 'of Bernevale,' probably in Normandy. This family came into Ireland about the time of the Anglo-Norman invasion and settled in Dublin and Meath. They were long one of the most influential families of the Pale, and played an important part in the history of the country.

de Beic—XI—de Bec, Beck, Bex; i.e., 'of Bec,' in Normandy; the name of a family of Norman origin who came to Ireland about the time of the invasion.

de Beil—XII—de Bel, Bell; Nor. 'le bel,' i.e., the beautiful. This family, which is of Norman origin, first came to Ireland about the time of the invasion.

de Béir—XI—de Ver, De Vere; i.e., 'of Ver,' in Normandy.

de Bial, Veale. V. de Béal.

de Blaca—XII—le Blak, le Blake, Blake; i.e., 'the black,' from the complexion; a descriptive epithet which in course of time supplanted the original surname, which was Caddell. Caddel was used as an alias for Blake as late as the 17th century, when it fell into disuse. The Blakes were one of the 'tribes' of Galway. The first of the family to come into prominence was Richard Caddel, or Blake, who was sheriff of Connacht in the early years of the 14th century, and from him are descended the many disdinguished families of Blake in Ireland.

de Blácál—XI—Blackhall; i.e., 'of the black hall,' or 'of Blackhall'; a late English surname.

de Blácam—XI—de Blakeham, Blackham; i.e., 'of Blackham' in England.

de Blácual—XI—Blackwell; i.e., 'of Blackwell,' in England.

de Blaġo—XI—de Blythe, Blythe; i.e., 'of Blyth,' in England.

de Bluinnsiol—XI—de Blauncheuill, de Blancheville, Blanchville, Blanchfield; i.e. 'of Blanchville,' probably somewhere in Normandy. This family, which is of Norman origin, came into Ireland soon after the invasion and settled in Co. Kilkenny, where they held a prominent position down to the Cromwellian confiscations. Sir Edmund Blanchville forfeited his estates by attainder in 1641. The name, in the spoken language, is corrupted to Bluinnsín, and is even so written by Keating.

de Boid—XI—de Wode, Void, Voide, Woayde, Wood, Woods; Mid. Eng. 'atte Wode,' i.e., at the wood, from residence thereby; a rather common surname in early Anglo-Irish records, but it is now impossible to distinguish it from the many Irish surnames that have been anglicised Wood or Woods.

de Bolltun—XI—de Boulton, de Bolton, Bolton; i.e., 'of Bolton,' in England.

de Bond—XII—Bonde, Bond; Nor. 'le Bonde,' i.e., the bond, householder, husbandman, one who held the bond, householder, husbandman, one who held under the tenure styled bondage. The surname is old in Ireland.

de Bosc—XII—Fox; i.e., 'the fox,' one of somewhat sly and cunning disposition; the name of a once respectable old English family in Co. Limerick. Mountfox, near Kilmallock, is called in Irish Móin an Ḃoscaiġ, Fox's bog, from a member of this family.

de Boscoc—XI—de Bostock, Bostoke, Bostock; i.e., 'of Bostock,' in Cheshire; the name of an old family in Cork and Waterford; now very rare.

de Bot—XII—le Bot, le But, But, Butt; Nor. 'le bot,' i.e., the short, stumpy person.

de Botún—XI—de Bohun, de Bohoun, Boone, Bone, Bowen; i.e., of Bohun. It occurs as a surname in Domesday Book.

TODD'S MILL

Joseph Todd came to America from Loundondery, Ireland in 1830. He landed in Philadelphia. By 1854 he had wandered into Illinois and acquired four hundred acres of land in the northwest corner of township 4, range 2 west, along Beacoup Creek. In that year he set up the first sawmill in Perry County. His son, James, continued to operate the mill until 1870.

The Todds were devoted Catholics and it was Joseph's desire to see a well established Catholic Church in the area. Todd sawed lumber at the mill and donated it to build Saint Mary Magdalene Church at Todd's Mill.

The village of Todd's Mill was never plotted and there is no record of it in the county clerk's office. Some houses were built around the mill site. Most of them were rough, unplaned, unpainted and unseasoned. When the mill closed in 1870 these houses were abandoned and soon fell into ruins. Todd's Mill never had a store or post office.

Today the church is all that remains. Though all signs of Todd's Mill are gone, the dream of Joseph Todd glows brightly in the well established church. The parochial school beside the church has 73 pupils.

James Todd became prominent in county civic affairs and, like his father, became one of the county's leading citizens.

RICE

Rice is located in section 1 and 12, township 4, range 3 on Three Mile Prairie. This is nine miles north of Pinkneyville, on State Highway 127. It was never plotted into lots but was a community of small tracts of land ranging from one half acre to ten acres. Because of this Rice had no definite boundaries and no record of existence in the county clerk's office.

A general store was opened there in 1893 by a man named Babbs. Rice Post Office was opened in the store March 12, 1894. It received its name from the postmaster. The post office closed January 15, 1900 when the area became R.F.D. Pinkneyville. That same year Ray Hunter bought the store from Mr. Bibbs. Hunter was the village merchant for sixty years. The building is now closed and deteriorating. On the east side of the store is the Nehring Gas Company's Bulk Plant. Another Nehring plant is located up the old road about half a mile. Nehring deals in bottled L.P. gas.

In the height of its prosperity the village had the store, and a blacksmith shop run by Jones Brothers. There was a molasses mill operated by Jones and Hutching. A large plant for condensing milk was operated by a local stock company. Hutching owned a large block of the stock. The plant was called The Creamery by local folk. Dr. Holman practiced medicine in rice for many years. His son Oliver Holman, was safety engineer at Granit City Steel Plant for several years. The old Dr. Holman house still stands in Rice. Then the village has a population of about one hundred.

In the 1880s Eli Hutching donated two acres of land in the northeast corner of section 2 for a cemetery. His brother, Reverend W.W. Hutching, a Baptist minister, donated two acres adjoining the cemetery for a church yard. A log church was built. The seats were made of split logs with wooden peg legs. The log church burned and was replaced with a frame building. In 1924 a new church was erected in Rice across the road from Hunter's Store. The old frame church was torn down and the salvaged lumber used to build a parsonage. This parsonage burned to the ground. "Not a plank of the old church exists today," laments Mrs. Inez Dempsy, an old resident of Rice.

Today the Concord Baptist Church stands. It is a large frame building with a limestone veneer front. It has a membership of about 150 and a Sunday School attendance of 60. It has a beautiful parsonage with a resident pastor.

West of the parsonage is the new cemetery. The old Concord Cemetery has been neglected. The road leading to it has grown up in brush until one must

Mary McElroy
She claimed to have also married a mcElroy, but it's thought unlikely that she did. However her son Robb McKinstry did marry a girl who was a McKinstry, so perhaps she did marry a McElroy.

She came to America in 1848 and brought her son Hugh (Who was 7 years old when they came.) Mary and her son came to New York and worked a while before catching a train to Tamora, Ill. She stayed at Blanchards hotel then caught a ride with Robert Baggs and came to the trading post. (Robert Baggs was also called Billy, and he was a cousin to the McKinstry's)

Mary and her mother are suposed to be buried at Chapman cemetary. I don't know if they have markers or not. Mary McElroy had a sister Ann who married a Rolf (I supose that is the spelling) and lived in Kansas. I believe I was told that she died before Mary and is buried in Topeka Kansas. She also had a brother John McElroy.

Hugh McElroy is buried at Oak Grove Presb. cemetary on the old way to Nashvill Dates on stone 1848-1914 which doesn't match since he was suposed to be 7 when they came here. Perhaps his birth certificate was filed when they came here?

Mary McElroy
Married John McKinstry
John lived where Henry McKinstry lived. (Ellic was Henry's dad. The homeplace is south of where Rice to Swanwick road makes a right turn near Michael, Leo and Elaine Wright's places, before the old McCune place.) John was buried at old Chapman cemetary. He had a stone marker but his son Johnny wouldn't put it up.
Their children: John McKinstry Jr.
Rob McKinstry
Ellic McKinstry
John McKinstry Sr. served in the civil war. While in the war he got distentary and he died of disentary after the war was over.
Then Mary McElroy McKinstry
Married Fred Neimeyer
Their children: Mary Isabell (Bell) Neimeyer born April 16, 1872
Died March 28, 1945 at 10:43 A.M
Fred Neimeyer was german and everyone thought he was odd because he wanted to plant a vinyard. Ellic (His step son) ran him off, threatening to hang him. Fred took the best horse and wagon and left, but his wife (Mary) had his military papers so she knew he couldn't get a pension from his service. He was believed to have went somewhere around New Athens or Germantown. The census listed Mary Isabel's father as being from Ireland, but they prob. just assumed that since the McKinstry came from Ireland, that her father had too.

The story about why the McKinstry boys wouldn't put up their Dad's tombstone, was that when he died they found out that he had never married their mother so they took the tombstone that they had already bought and used it as a step up into their barn.

They had a land warrent in 1854 in Perry County (homestead). The land was bought from David McGill on 2-23-1854. It may have been a deal from the Il central railroad.

My Dear Sister -

I was very glad to receive your letter of 11th Feb. I was very sorry to hear of your illness - 41 years was a long time to be married. I don't know ____ your husband was. Has he relatives in Ireland of any "standing". I am glad to have go _____ a _____ pension. Our Mother would have had hers when _____ Wright died but the fact is I am hard to _____ as anybody! But I often thought of it. It was the cause of much correspondence which I dislike. Yes, it is indeed a long time since you and I were children playing around Mill Street - I should say up and down that beastly little lane! That house is standing - still looking gray and aged. When I was (there) about 9 years ago it was occupied by a pensioner who let out cars. I was in the yard and looked up at the bedroom windows. I did not tell the old soldier that I had lived there once.

That horrible shop in Killishoridean - Whiskey and Tay and India male or busk - and uncle Sam Crawford - and Aunt Eliza a good little bowl.

I don't know how I ever got on even as well as I did had I been educated I would have been a full-blown British _________ as I had it in here - but there is no use in looking back on those things. I am most horribly lonely and I have no one of my own relations (if there are any I would care to know.)

Well, this must do for both you and Mother. I got hers a few days ago and will write when I find her pension papers in a week

Sir,

Under instructions from His Excellency The Commander of the Forces, I have herewith the honor to transmit the Copy of a Letter dated Horse Guards 30th July 1842, detailing the reasons which influenced the General Commanding in Chief to depart from the Ordinary rule, and recommend to Her Majesty The Queen, that yourself and Major Swinburne should be promoted to the Vacancy, Created in the Regiment by Colonel The Hon. Henry Dundas being placed on Half Pay.

I have seldom felt greater pleasure than in transmitting this document, alike so honorable to yourself and to that distinguished Officer, Major Swinburne, and I Cannot refrain from Offering my sincere Congratulations to each of you on this occasion, as the Promotion received under such Circumstances must be Considered as doubly valuable,

Sir,

The Queen having been pleased to Command that Colonel The Honble Henry Dundas should be placed on Half Pay, The General Comg in Chief has with the Concurrence of The Secretary at War, considered it his duty to recommend to Her Majesty that the vacancy should be filled in Regimental succession, rather than by the selection of a Lieutenant Colonel from the Half Pay.

With the view of guarding against this Promotion being cited as a precedent to be followed upon other Occasions, I have the honor to Communicate to you the motives which have induced the proper authorities to submit for Her Majesties sanction a departure from the ordinary rule, and that the Senior Major and Captain of the 83rd Regiment should be promoted on the present occasion, and I beg you will be so good as to Communicate to Lieutenant Colonel Drydell and Brevet Major Swinburne.

Brevet Lieutenant Colonel Drydell entered the Army so far back as 1804 as an Ensign in the 8th Regiment and with the exception of one year and Nine months has been on full Pay the whole time — He served at the Capture of the Cape of Good Hope in 1806, in the Kandian War 1817 and 1818 and during the late disturbances in Canada, and he is stated in the Report of The General Officer by whom the Service Companies of the 83rd were lately inspected in Upper Canada, to be

The Services of Brevet Major Swinburne are still more peculiar— He rose from the Ranks. He was Sergeant Major of the Second Battalion 83rd Regiment at Talavera, when he was Wounded, and he was immediately after that Battle Appointed to an Ensigncy in the same Corps with which he Continued to serve in the Peninsula till the end of the War being present in all the Actions and Operations in which the Battalion was engaged during the eventful period, and being a second time Severely Wounded.—

He was also twelve years Adjutant of the 83rd, and so Sedulously did he discharge the duties of that important Appointment, that when the Regimental Books, and Records, were examined by a Court of Enquiry in 1829, on the suggestion of Sir Henry Hardinge, it was found that they were free from Error, and that this was very much owing to the vigilance with which he had superintended the Entries, and promoted the Registration of the Men's Services,—

EX-PARTE.

In the Circuit Court of Perry County, Illinois.
Chancery No. 148
PETITION FOR PARTITION.

PETITION filed October 1st, 1868 by Jane Hinton, wife of Theodore Hinton and Mary A. McKay by her guardian, representing that they are owners in fee simple of The SE¼ of the NW¼ and the NE¼ of the SW¼ of Sec. 16, T4S, R3_ of the 3rd P. M.; that they derived title to same by inheritance from their mother, Mary Wright McKay, who was a daughter of John Wright; that said Mary Wright McKay departed this life intestate on or about ________ ___, 18__ in Randolph County, Illinois and that said John Wright made a will to the above described lands to their said mother and the petitioners; that he departed this life on or about ______ ___, 18__. Petitioners further represent that they are the only persons who have any interest in said real estate.

Pray that three meet and proper persons be appointed to make partition of said lands if the same can be done without prejudice, and in case that same cannot be done that said lands be sold and the proceeds of sale be divided according to the respective interests of petitioner, after all reasonable costs of said sale.

MASTER'S REPORT OF PROOFS AND FINDINGS filed Oct. 1st, 1868, in which Wm. K. Murphy, Master in Chancery, reports that he has examined the title papers on file and from the affidavit of George G. McKay, it appears that the relationship and interest of the parties are correctly set forth in the Petition and that no other person or persons have any interest in the lands described therein.

Attached is Affidavit, sworn to on Sept. 29th, 1868 by Geo. G. McKay, in which he deposes and says that Jane Hinton and Mary A. McKay are the only surviving heirs of John Wright or Mary W. McKay who have any right title or interest in the said lands, and that Mary W McKay was the daughter of John Wright and the above parties to this suit are the daughter and wives at law of said Mary W. McKay.

These papers are apparently concerning an Illegitiment child of John Wright, weither this is our John Wright or not is not certain. From the courthouse, Leo Wright's Family were told and pieced together that The Illeg. Dau's child got this piece of land that was later Big Bob McKinstry's place and that J. N. was held in jail and it took everything they had almost to get him out and settle this matter. As mentioned before, we are not positive that this is our John, and if so if this whole story is true.

ARTHUR D. WRIGHT OF BRUSH PRAIRIE DIED SATURDAY, SEPT. 20

FUNERAL SERVICES CONDUCTED MONDAY BY REV. J. A. McCORD---INTERMENT AT CHURCH CEMETERY.

Arthur David Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wright of Brush Prairie, was born January 25, 1886. He died September 20, 1913, at the family home, aged at the time of his death 27 years, 7 months and 25 days. He grew to manhood in the neighborhood in which he was born.

Some weeks previous he had suffered a severe attack of inflamatory rheumatism but recovered, as he thought, and returned to work in the mines at Winkle. After working a few days he discovered that the dampness of the mines was causing a return of his old trouble so he came out.

He was in Pinckneyville Friday attending the fair. On Saturday he complained of pains in his body and Dr. W. L. McCandless was summoned but before the doctor arrived the trouble seemed to center in the region of his heart causing death instantly.

He was the fourth child of a family of nine children, having four brothers and four sisters, Charles, Albert and Roy of this vicinity and George of St. Louis; sisters are Mrs. John Trefftzs of Sparta and Mrs. Cora Leunneman and Misses Clara and Nellie, who reside at home and one half brother, Will Wright of Franklin Co., and one half sister, Mrs. Belle Turner of near Oakdale.

Arthur professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist church five years ago and has lived a consistent member ever since.

He was a brother of the United Mine Workers of America Local 2651 of Craigs, Illinois. He was an industrious young man. Kind and affectionate in the home, trying to make life comfortable and pleasant for his parents and brothers and sisters and all his friends and will be greatly missed by his loved ones.

Funeral services were held Monday at the Galum Baptist church at 11 a. m. conducted by Rev. McCord of Pinckneyville taking his text from 1st Samuel, 20th chapter and 3rd verse. "There is but a step between me and death."

The body was laid to rest in the cemetery abjoining the church. A large concourse of relatives and friends attended the last sad rites of the departed one. Peace to his ashes.

George Wright, Former Resident Died March 3 In Arkansas

Mr. George Wright, former resident of Pinckneyville, Ill., passed away at his home in Hot Springs, Arkansas on March 3, 1966.

Mr. Wright was born on the old homestead of his parents, the late Jeremiah and Lydia Wright, on March 21, 1888. He passed away at the age of 77 years, 11 months and 15 days.

He is survived by his wife Ethel, and one son Rostan Wright of St. Louis, Mo. and six grand children and five great grand children. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Cora Lunnemann of Pinckneyville, Ill. and nephews and neices all of Pinckneyville.

He was preceded in death by four brothers and three sisters.

The Legend of the Dogwood

The Dogwood once grew tall and strong
So the legend goes,
Until it formed the Cross on which
The Savior died and rose.

As Jesus hung there on the tree,
He sensed its great distress,
At having had its branches used
For such cruel purposes.

In gentle pity Jesus vowed Henceforth the dogwood tree
Should grow too small to make a cross
And bent and twisted be.

And now the blossoms form a cross,
A nail print in each petal,
Each flower depicts a crown of thorns
Which on His brow did settle.

Thus the Dogwood stands today
Protected in its loss,
A symbol of His agony
And death upon the Cross.

THE PEOPLE'S

PINCKNEYVILLE, ILLINOIS, TH

ETHEL GRUVER KILLED

Mrs. Ethel Gruver of this city was instantly killed at 4:00 o'clock last Friday afternoon and her son Winston Keene was severly injured when the car, in which she and the boy, aged eleven, were riding, crashed into a locomotive on the Southern Railway crossing near Lebanon, Illinois.

Mrs. Gruver was returning to Alton, Illinois, where she has been employed for the past year, from this city, to which she had motored to get the lad who was entered in school here and who lived with Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Huggins. Mrs. Huggins and Mrs. Gruver being sisters.

The accident occured, when Mrs. Gruver started to cross the track, caught sight of the oncoming engine, and attempted to apply her brakes. At this critical point the brakes failed to hold and the auto smashed into the locomotive. The impact snapped the neckbone of Mrs. Gruver, causing instant death, while the youth suffered a broken arm, and cuts and contusions about the head.

Immediately after the accident an ambulance was summoned and mother and child were rushed to the hospital in Belleville. The mother however was dead. but the son received treatment there.

The child, Winston, has been removed to the Hliler Hospital in this city and is resting as nicely as can be expected.

The deceased was 28 years of age and has been a resident of Pinckneyville most of her life. The body was removed to this city.

Funeral services were held in the Baptist Church ,Tuesday morning with the Rev. W. T. Waring ating.

Auto-Train Crash Kills Woman

Son Hurt in Wreck Attributed to Her Attempt to Stop

Mrs. Ethel Grover of Alton was killed and her son, Winton Keene, 10, was injured at 4 p. m. yesterday when an automobile driven by the woman was struck by a Southern Railway passenger train where the right of way intersects State Highway 43, about four and a half miles south of Lebanon, Ill. The boy is at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Belleville, with a fracture of the left arm, severe cuts and bruises and shock.

The crossing is controlled only by a cross-arm "Stop, look, listen" sign. State highway patrolmen investigating the accident said skid marks of the car show Mrs. Grover had applied her brakes in an effort to stop, and that skid marks were apparent for between 40 and 50 feet before the car was struck. Had she not attempted to stop, the officers said, she would have crossed the tracks safely, as the engine struck the rear end of the car.

Mrs. Grover, who was 32, had driven to Pinckneyville, where she formerly lived, and was bringing her son to Alton, where she is now employed.

The train, which was in charge of Conductor Clyde Wright of Louisville, Ky., stopped after the accident and brought the injured boy and the body of his mother to Belleville, where an ambulance was waiting to take them to the hospital. The boy was not told of the death of his mother.

Wright Family Stories

Grandpa Calvin Davis was sitting up in a chair because he couldn't sleep. He was living with Lora and Albert. Lora Davis Wright (Grandma) heard two voices talking and she got up to see who her dad was talking to. Calvin told her he was talking to Albert and Lora thought he meant her husband Albert and told Calvin that Albert is in bed. Calvin said, "No I was talking to my brother Albert". Albert Davis was killed by lightning years before.

Grandma Lora Wright used to put pennies with holes in them on a string around the kids necks when they had the croup.

Dean Wright put a potato in his hip pocket. It was suspoșed to be good for arthritis. We don't know if it did any good, but it got hard as a rock and didn't rot.

Grandma Lora always said if it rained on Easter sunday it would rain for 7 sundays afterwards, and it almost always does.

Some "Wives-tales" that Grandma believed in:

Never let a baby look in a mirror before it's a year old.
Never rock a rocking chair with no one in it.
Never put a penny in your mouth 'cause it might have been on a dead person's eyes.

Grandpa Albert Wright was doing business with MR Banding. Mable knew who the man was and told mom (Ethel) that she wasn't game to go up to him and sing "old man Banden setting on a fence- trying to make a dollar out of 15¢. Mom didn't know who Mr Banden was so she did it. Mr banden told their dad "Preacher Wright, you sure didn't teach your kids any manners!"

When Aunt Mable Wright Trefftzs was little some woman would come to see grandma Lora and this woman was part Indian. The kids thought she could cast spells or something and when she would come all the kids sat real still and hardly made a sound. The Indian woman complemented Grandma on how well behaved her kids were. Grandma said, "It's odd, but they usually aren't this well behaved!" (Everyone in Winkle knew that the Wright kids were mischievous!)

Grandpa Albert Wright was a big practical joker and Mom (Ethel) got a new doll for Christmas and he thought he'd play a joke on her. He put mustard in the dolls pants so mom would think it messed it's pants. The mustard stain didn't come off the doll!

There was an old car shed that the wind had blown over and it made a flat roof that the kids sat on and played. Mom and Aunt Lydia were going to let their dolls down in a bucket and mom let Aunt Lydia's doll fall and it broke. Mom had to give Aunt Lydia her doll.

Grandma sent Grandpa to town to put mom;s name on her birth certificate as Imogene. When he came back he had registered her as Ethel. Lydia was suspoșed to be named Vera and Grandpa named her Lydia after his mom. Grandpa told Grandma that she got to name all the boys and he got to name the girls.

Grandma had bought a lot of onion bulbs and she had Grandpa and mom set them out. They set out bulbs, and set out bulbs and were real tired of it and were running out of room to put them. So they took the box and dug a hole out under the cherry tree and put the onions in and covered them with the box and then with dirt. Several years later a square place thick with onions came up under the cherry tree and Grandma couldn't understand where they came from!

When Earl McCune (Daddy) was in the army he brought home his K-Rations and there were some packages of bullion in them. Mom and Uncle Donald decided that they would fix themselves some tea. They fixed it and it tasted awful! They decided it wasn't tea but didn't know what it was till someone told them it was bullion soup.

Darlene was little and mom would throw her leg over Darlene and say "Tah Rah Rah Boom Deay" and Darlene would laugh and get a big kick out of it. Grandma and mom and Darlene were at Winkle church. After they sang a song when it was nice and quiet Darlene Hollered out "Tah Rah Rah Boom Deay Ethel".

Mom, Daddy and Aunt Lydia had been to Aunt Clara's funeral (Grandpa Wright's sister) and were on their way back. Cindy watched Daddy putting his foot on the gas pedal. When he put his foot on the brake she pressed the gas pedal to the floor. The car roared and would have really ran thru anything in it's way if Daddy didn't have his foot on the brake.

Terry was setting on the dog house and Lydia said she looked so sad She asked her what was wrong. Grandma and Uncle Fat had died that year and mom Ethel was in the hospital. Terry said she told God that she'd be mad at him if he let Aunt Ethel die too.

Uncle Abe (Albert) was so heavy that he broke every chair he sat in. Grandma got mad at him and told him that she was going to get a stump for him to sit on. Uncle Abe went and cut a huge block of wood and peeled the bark off and used it to sit on. It never broke!

Aunt Lydia was real little and was in the kitchen with her mom. When Lora had her back turned Lydia got up to the stove and stirred the gravey. When asked what she was doing she said she was making "Wee Wee gravey!"

Uncle Tom Davis had a boy that was going across the mountain to see a girl that they didn't want him to see. They had warned him that there were ghosts up there, so one night Uncle Tom put a sheet on and stuck his hands in a cold stream and when they boy passed by he came out and shook hands with him. When the boy got home he rushed in and said "I seen it tonight Mammy!". We don't know if it kept the boy from seeing the girl or not.!

On the way to the funeral of Harry Morgan (Aunt Clara's 2nd husband) the twins saw a sign that said George Washington's birthday. They sang Happy Birthday George Washington till Mom, Daddy and Aunt Lydia were about crazy!

Wright Family Stories

Charlie Gunther always argued with Grandpa Wright in church and disturbed everyone in church. One sunday Grandpa got down from the pulpit and knocked Charlie out. It cut Charlie's face and left a scar. Charlie had Grandpa arrested, ~~and~~ Bob Olgivie said they'd been wishing Preacher Wright would do that, so he went his bail. Grandma wasn't with him in church that sunday (One of the kids were probably sick) and Mom ran home to tell her and thought she would be real mad at Grandpa, but she just laughed so hard she almost got down in the floor!

Donald caught 2 of his brother's smoking and was going to tell on them. They told him that he was big enough to try it, why don't he take a puff. So he tried it and was real upset when he realized that he couldn't tell on them now!

Grandpa Wright only tried to smoke once whe he was a kid and it made him so sick that ne never smoked again, and was very much against any of his boys smoking. The boys snuck around and smoked behind the barn. They used a tabacco that came in cans and was called Bull Durham. You had to roll your own cigarettes. Grandma knew that the boys had been sneaking around and she found their can in between the logs in the barn wall. She took it and burned it in the stove. She heard one of the boys ask the other one where the bull was and he said "At the barn" and she knew what they were talking about - cause the bull was in the pasture. The other one said "no it's not there, Mom must have found it!"

Grandpa rode a horse to the winkle store and a bunch of guys sat on the benches in front of the store and when he went in, they decided to play a trick on the preacher and put a cinder under the saddle. When he got on the horse it started busking and he stayed on till the cinder got out from under the saddle. He rode back by the store and said "Pretty good for an old man!"

Aunt Lydia used to bite a lot when she was little. Grandma told her if she didn't stop biting people she would loose her teeth. She got mad at Uncle Donald and bit him on the back and her tooth caught in his sweater and came out!

Aunt Barb remember's Uncle Donald laughing about Aunt Lydia beating him up real good once with her lunch bucket.

Grandma and Grandpa (Lona and Albert) got their first car when Fat was a young man and had learned to drive. Fat had to take Grandma to town and grandma watched closely how he drove. Once when Fat went in the store at Winkle, Grandma got behind the wheel. Whe he came out and and saw she was behind the wheel he asked her "What do you think you are going to do?!" and she said "I am going to drive". He told her that she couldn't stear between all the trees in the woods, and Grandma said "I've been watching and I can do it, and it's my car so I am going o drive. At this time cars had the gas controlled by a hand control, and there ere three pedals: clutch, break and reverse. There was no shift. The cars also ad a choke, so they were very complicated. Grandma drove and Fat said she ontrolled the gas real smooth and steared well. Fat told her, well you can iust drive yourself to town from now on.

randpa Wright learned to drive by driving around the field to practice, and he ook all the little kids with him. (Mom said he always took at least one of he kids with him where ever he went.) Grandpa drove around the barn and ollered at Grandma "How do I stop this thing?!" and one of the kids just urned off the key and the car died and he was finally able to stop it from oing around and around the barn.

randma Wright hadn't been driving long, and She was going on Road to St. Louis and her rother Charlie was with her. The road to St. Louis was narrow, but two cars ould meet, but barely. Everytime a car would come, Grandma would pull over Uncle Charlie said "Lona, 2 cars can meet here!" and she said I don't elieve it and continued to pull over every time she met a car on the way [redacted]

A story that was passed down, is that Great Great Grandma Elizabeth Trydell Wright had to flee Ireland to keep from being beheaded! In her later years she lived with Jeremiah & Lydia and although she helped with the chores and eals, she ate at a table by herself because she was royalty.

sa Bird Wells has twins sons whose names are Robbie and Tommie, but her older n who is 2yrs calls them Robbie and the other Robbie [redacted] or Robbie & 2!

cle Ned Wright (son of John & Eliz) traveled across the river on ice with the am of oxen. The team ahead of him went under and the man got tangled in the ins and died.

Mom (Ethel) and her brother Dean Wright went to George Miller's to play with Edward and Evelyn. Grandma Lora Wright told them if they were going anywhere to not go anyplace with them and to be back by 4:00 p.m. George Miller's were going to his brother's, John Millers, and mom told them they couldn't go along. Dean said that their mom would never know and they would be back by then. (John miller lived on the road towards Paul Kelly's). Dean and Mom played with Kenneth Miller (John's son) and went up in the hay loft. Mom went by thru the ladder and stepped back into the hole where the ladder was and fell across the manger. She broke her arm. Miller's took her in a model A car to Pinckneyville to the Hiller hospital Dean ran all the way home (5 or 6 miles) and his heart acted up and Grandma Lora had to nurse both Ethel (Mom) and Dean. When Doc hiller Xrayed her arm and showed it to Ethel, she saw Albert Wrigh written across the break. So when she got home she told her mom that she knew one thing, if you ever loose me all they have to do is xray me and Dad's name is written on my arm!

J.N. Wright's home had a stove that was in the middle of the room and he had a cot behind the stove.
